F.L.E.O. Foundation Honors Law Enforcement Officers At Annual Awards Ceremony

Last night, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers (F.L.E.O.) Foundation was honored to recognize two outstanding law enforcement officers and an American patriot during their annual awards ceremony held in New York City. New York State Superintendent Steven James was honored as the Law Enforcement Leader of the Year in recognition of his accomplishments in leading 5,000 sworn officers. The F.L.E.O. Foundation presented an award to Israel Police Chief Yoni Zeitak in recognition of his meritorious leadership during the heinous attacks committed against Israel and its police force on October 7th, 2023. In recognition of his unwavering support for both the text and spirit of our Constitution, and his advocacy for law and order, world renowned public speaker, author and podcast host George "Tyrus" Murdoch was presented the Patriot of the Year award. All three honorees provided remarks that touched the hearts of the 250 law enforcement and prosecutorial guests in attendance.

The F.L.E.O. Foundation was fortunate to have Henry Repeating Arms' Chief Executive Officer, Anthony Imperato, in attendance. In a gesture of profound generosity, CEO Imperato presented each honoree with an awesome commemorative lever-action rifle. All in attendance applauded CEO Imperato's powerful contribution, and greatly appreciate his company's motto: Made in America or Not Made at All. The ceremony was also enhanced by the participation of the United States Park Police Honor Guard in presenting the colors, and the beautiful rendition of the National Anthem by Alita Montuore, Executive Assistant to the Police Unity Tour.

Founded in 1993, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Foundation is proud to serve as the First Responder charity in support of federal officers in need of emergency assistance. The executive team of the Foundation are all volunteers who are proud to carry out their organization's mantra: When a federal law enforcement officer or their family are impacted by tragic circumstances, help is just a phone call away. God bless all those who have served, those currently serving, and may God watch over all their families.
